Dear fellow PhDs,

We would like to invite you to a week of intensive writing.

Do you want to get started, make progress or finish a writing project?

Join us and benefit from a motivating working atmosphere!

This year's program includes an introduction to LaTeX followed by a practical hands-on session for those who want get started with using Latex. Like last year the Kompetenzzentrum Schreiben will support us with individual counselling you can sign up for!

This offer is free of cost and entirely voluntary. For organizational matters only, we would like you to let us know if you want to participate. Just send an email to f.same@uni-koeln.de or talk to us in person.
