YOU WANT POWER?

What is power? Why do we want it? How do we get it? In this interactive workshop we will explore together, individually and in small groups what we understand by the term power, how we want to use power in our own lives and careers and how we can lift ourselves and others to overcome oppressive systems.

This workshop is planned for FLINTA* PhDs and postdocs members of the CRC.

The workshop will be held in English.

Naomi Ryland co-authored the Spiegel Bestseller Unlearn Patriarchy and Starting a Revolution. She is a social entrepreneur, co-founder of Unlearn Business Labs, tbd*, and SEND e.V.. Naomi is a visionary advocate for feminist and post-capitalist ideals, actively working to turn conventional business wisdom on its head and explore radical alternatives.
